

HERE YOU ARE FANS! THE LAST OF BASEBALL CONTEST PICTURES—CAN YOU NAME HIM?

Here is the final picture in the baseball contest. With No. 9 identified, line up your team and send in the result. Speed counts in this scramble just as much as in the real diamond game.

There still seems to be uncertainty about the Federal league. We are classing it as a major, and every player on our team is either in the big leagues now or was at the time he retired from baseball.

BITS OF NEWS

Jury considering case of Melville A. Reeves and wife, "skyscraper raffles," acquitted woman and disagreed over verdict for man.

Chas. Seitz, 39, 1611 S. Michigan av., arrested on arrival from Milwaukee with Frances and Elizabeth Russe, aged 22 and 17. Seitz says older girl is common law wife. May be Mann law investigation.

Pint of blood transfused from veins of Dr. A. W. Gregg saved life of Miss Anna Mickelsen, superintendent Robert Burns hospital.

Dr. Eugenia A. Miller just received word that brother, sister and brother-in-law had lost lives in war in Austria.

Mrs. Wm. T. Webster, Chicago wife of Monon road department head, arrested in Louisville brothel, is writing book on double moral standard.

"There's nothin' new under th' sun. Fer instance, Rip Van Winkle County long ago discovered th' twilight sleep."

LEFT FIELD

This young man belongs to an out-fielding trio that has been called the fastest-fielding, hardest-hitting and strongest-throwing combination in baseball, though the claim has been challenged. He has played in one world's series and hit above .300 during one season, which was not the year his team won its league pennant.

CHICAGO GRAIN. — Wheat and oats down. Corn up. Provisions slightly higher. Wheat closed $1.44½.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — Market strong. Prices firm.

Fire in Elm Lutheran church, N. Whipple near Byron. Damage $200.

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday, possibly light snow flurries; not much change in temperature; lowest tonight about 25; moderate northeast winds. Temperature Monday: Highest, 38; lowest, 24.